Global recruitment coordinator

Assist the global recruitment team with logistics for all recruiting events worldwide. Provide support for ad hoc reporting and data entry initiatives, track news and data sources, and research specific areas as requested for articles, speeches, and other publications. Use outstanding time management, customer service, sales, and data entry skills combined with strong attention to detail in order to achieve business goals.

Research associate, U.S. foreign policy

Assist with the proofreading and editing of articles, op-eds, and other written materials. Provide administrative support, manage budgets, and assist with social media outreach by publishing a blog, website, video, and/or using social media applications. Coordinate events including preparing invitations, travel arrangements, corresponding with speakers, helping to prepare background papers and materials for distribution, and providing other logistical support.

Global program manager

Act as the liaison between the global sales and operations team and the support team by identifying opportunities for growth within programs and new potential projects. Collaborate across cross-functional teams to execute programs that meet customers’ quality and cost expectations. Develop relationships with clients to address special requirements, identify and resolve problems, and escalate issues to appropriate levels for effective resolution.

Coordinate cost reduction proposals/plans for key opportunities as programs move into high-volume production. Provide business updates to management teams and coordinate field activities, while communicating new product information to internal stakeholders. Manage programs’ end-of-life (EOL) cycles to minimize financial exposure, work through all liability claims with customers, and support the supply group in managing EOL with the supplier base.
