

Business Majors: Law - Global Politics - Public Service & Public Policy

Exploring Career Paths

1. Learn about Functions
2. Research Roles
3. Learn about Skills

Core Legal Careers
Lawyer (JD) ♦ Paralegal ♦ Legal Assistant

A legal career requires deep knowledge of the American judicial system. Main activities are researching the law, investigating complex fact patterns, interviewing witnesses, and preparing written cases for litigation

Legal Administrative Support
Compliance Specialist ♦ Conflict Analyst
♦ Contract Administrator ♦ Court Messenger

Activities relate to comparing laws and regulations against facts. Requires research and analytical thinking for interpreting procedures and rules

IT in Litigation Support
E-Discovery professional ♦ Document Coder ♦
IT Litigation Support

Design and implement databases for managing, sorting, indexing, abstracting, and coordinating the large volumes of data produced in major litigation

Private Sector

Courtroom & Courthouse

Judge (JD) ♦ Court Clerk ♦ Mediator ♦ Interpreter

Courtroom related jobs follow strict parameters, so master knowledge about procedures, rules and technology. Interpersonal, oral and written communication skills are necessary for these positions

Politics

Federal/State Legislature Staff ♦ Analyst ♦
Campaign Organizer ♦ Political Fundraiser

In Politics, every activity is under time pressure. Expect to use your legal knowledge, resourcefulness, interpersonal, and communication skills

Public Service Careers

Marketing ♦ Human Resources ♦ Communications
Specialist

Public Service roles are directly related to the function/area of specialization. Required qualifications will differ depending on the function/role and entity

Foreign Service

Embassies Staff ♦ CIA or NSA Analyst ♦ AID Staff
♦ Political Risk Analyst

Political and international relation activities are organized by geographic areas of specialization. Expect to use research, critical thinking and interpersonal skills related to intercultural knowledge and languages

Public Sector

* Red- Functions & Roles

* Gold – Skills & Facts