

What is Marketing?

Marketing is the activity, set of institutions, and processes for creating, communicating, delivering, and exchanging offerings that have value for customers, clients, partners, and society at large (AMA, 2021). Use this visual to identify key responsibilities within each marketing role. The outer portion of each segment contains potential job titles for MBAs with a marketing focus.

How would YOU like to contribute?

