* The Committee on Prehealth Advising (COPA) Letter is sent as a part of your committee packet that includes your individual recommendation letters. It includes information on your academics, research experience, clinical experience, and extracurricular/service activities. The annual, non-refundable $100 Prehealth Credential Service Fee is required at the time you submit the COPA letter request form. MIT Prehealth Advising will only submit a committee letter twice on your behalf. If you are not ready to go through the COPA process, we encourage you to wait. MIT Prehealth Advising will not submit a COPA letter for another cycle once you are accepted to a medical school.

 When you request the COPA letter, you will be prompted to open a Prehealth Credential Service Account. The Prehealth Credential Service Account is where you will request letters of recommendation and upload your resume,
