

Education

---

University of RochesterBachelor of Arts with Double Major in Financial Economics and MathematicsMinor in Business and Chinese with a Certificate in Actuarial Science*

- Cumulative GPA 3.xx out of 4.00; Dean's List All Eligible Semesters.

- Additional Activities: Statistics Teaching Assistant; UR Concerts; Economics and Finance Club Risk Manager; Philanthropy and Recruitment Chair of Sigma Chi Fraternity; and Branch Out Marketing Associate.

Rochester, NYExpected Spring 20xxExperience

---

Jefferies LLCSales and Trading Summer Analyst*

- Assisted traders and salesmen with daily activities, including market recaps, corporate bond analysis, and independent projects via rotations in Investment Grade (sales and trading), Emerging Markets (sales and trading), and US Economics (Jefferies U.S. economic, Federal Reserve, Treasury financing and fiscal outlook and analysis).
- Developed 3D dynamic model that normalizes data exported from Bloomberg.
- Model predicted macroeconomic data based on different metrics and performed multivariate regression analysis yielding statistics such as fit, correlation, significance, and interaction coefficients to form linear predictor model for chosen dependent variable.

New York, NYSummer 20xxMi CompanyFinancial and Sales Intern*

- Recorded and analyzed operating cash flow (accounts, payables, inventories, and receivables), assisted with accuracy of the accounting and financial information and ensured proper documentation of prices.
- Analyzed the market suppliers in Asia assessing costs, benefits and profitability of specific projects.

Shanghai, ChinaFall 20xxUniversity of RochesterEconometrics Research Assistant*

- Used STATA for research on effects of breastfeeding on child's cognitive development and future income.
- Analyzed data files by creating plots and conducting regression analysis to identify significance effect of single variables, interactions, and proxy and dummy variables.

Rochester, NYFall 20xx – Spring 20xxReinsurance ConsultingActuarial Intern*

- Negotiated terms and conditions for prime, coverage, special circumstances, and other transactions.
- Analyzed pre-contracts to identify gaps or discrepancies including under coverage and nature of products reinsured.

Tampa, FLSummer 20xxLeadership and Affiliations

---

University of RochesterMeridian Society Member*

- Interact regularly with prospective students, parents and families via tours and social media communication.

Student Alumni Ambassador

- Liason with alumni community through events, reunions, and donor acknowledgements.

Order of Omega Honor Society Member

- Selected based on outstanding fraternity scholarship, leadership, and service.

Hall Council President

- Ensured effectiveness of residential hall and mets regularly with council, residents and housing administrators.

Rochester, NYFall 20xx – PresentSpring 20xx – PresentSpring 20xx – PresentFall 20xx – Spring 20xxSkills and Interests

---

- Quantitative, research, and analytical skills with proven competencies to create financial models, perform valuation via DCF, conduct due diligence, and execute fundamental analysis.
- Bloomberg, STATA, SPSS, Excel, Word, and PowerPoint competencies.
- US Citizen, Trilingual in Spanish, English, and Chinese.
- Avid distance runner and online poker enthusiast.