

IN THIS MAJOR YOU'LL LEARN TO:

- Develop familiarity with central elements and concepts in visual culture, and gain familiarity in the methods of understanding and discussing them
- Stylistic, comparative and historical analysis of visual forms through written and oral communication
- Advanced writing skills; synthesizing organizing and presenting large amounts of material from various sources and disciplines
- Research and methodology relevant to art history (use of library, image indexes and databases)
- Develop an awareness of the power of images to influence their audiences in various social and historical contexts, other cultures and historical eras

And so much more! Faculty and advisors are here to help you get the most out of your program and how it may apply to different career paths
