Internship Code of Conduct

As an intern you will be expected to act in a professional and ethical manner. Your conduct should make the employer want to host future interns from this college.

The following is expected of you as an intern representing the David Nazarian College of Business and Economics at California State University, Northridge:

- Remain drug and alcohol-free, and avoid the use of controlled substances
- Maintain confidentiality of work-related projects and personnel
- Familiarize yourself with, and adhere to, relevant organizational arrangements, procedures, and functions
- Understand what constitutes a permissible work absence and who to notify if absent, be prompt with being on time to work and with assignments; give it your best effort
- Changes in work schedule, supervision, or problems at your site must be reported to the Internship Director
- If you feel victimized by a work-related incident, contact the Director of Internships immediately
- Dress appropriately for the work setting
- Follow through on commitments
- Do not conduct personal business during work hours (cell phones, e-mail, internet)
- Keep a positive attitude
- Keep an open mind, avoid jumping to conclusions, and try to make informed judgements
- Be observant – see how people organize their ideas and respond to situations
- Communicate – keep people informed in a useful succinct way, listen, and ask questions
- Be fair, considerate, honest, trustworthy, and cooperative when dealing with co-workers
- Assert yourself and your ideas in an appropriate and tactful manner
- Seek feedback from your supervisors, accept suggestions for corrective changes in behavior, and attempt to improve performance
- Accept constructive criticism and continuously strive to improve performance
- Seek to enhance your professional effectiveness by improving skills and acquiring new knowledge
- Abide by any other terms of employment and regulations required by the Employer

I agree to the above stated Internship Code of Conduct and will make every effort to abide by it.

Letter of Understanding

I agree to abide by the requirements that govern the David Nazarian College of Business and Economics Internship Program and have received a copy of these requirements. I agree to enroll in the appropriate internship course, perform 135 hours of work as assigned by the company and turn in all forms, required papers, and reports to the Internship Director at the required times. I understand that failure on my part to complete any requirement in a timely manner will result in the assignment of a no-credit grade. In accepting this internship, I acknowledge full release of any liability on the part of the company/agency, California State University, Northridge, and the David Nazarian College of Business and Economics for any injury sustained while engaged in any activity associated with this internship. I understand that CSUN provides no insurance coverage for me, including Worker's Compensation or personal liability.
