

Resources Available to Students

Public Safety

Public Safety provides coverage on all three campuses 24 hours a day, seven days a week and can be reached at 203-582-6200 or public.safety@quinnipiac.edu. Public Safety:

- Responds to all emergencies and requests for assistance
- Offers walking escort services on campus 24 hours a day
- Investigates complaints and submits follow-up written reports
- Maintains relationships with area law enforcement and emergency service agencies
- Issues all campus parking permits

Counseling Services

Counseling Services is open Monday through Friday 9a-6p by appointment. Students should request appointments through the Appointment Request Form. Additional information can be found at <https://myq.quinnipiac.edu/Counseling> or by calling 203-582-8680. Counseling services provides:

- Individual Counseling
- Groups
- Stress Management
- Diagnostic Evaluation
- Referral and consultation to off-campus physicians and therapists

Student Health Services

Student Health Services, staffed by various medical treatment providers who can diagnose and treat, is open Monday through Friday 8a-8p and Saturday/Sunday 10a-4p on the Mount Carmel Campus. The York Hill Health Center is open Monday through Friday 12p-8p. Appointments can be scheduled through your Patient Portal or by calling 203-582-8742. The Patient Portal can be accessed by going to: <https://studenthealthservices.quinnipiac.edu>. Student Health Services provides:

- Acute medical care and diagnostic procedures
- Specialty referrals
- Gynecology services (by appointment only)
- Transportation to off-campus specialties (by prior arrangement when available)
- Allergy injections (by appointment)
- Consultation with Dietitian (by appointment)
- Consultation with Prevention and Wellness Educator (by appointment)

Learning Commons

Academic Consultation with Academic Specialists. The Academic Specialist staff can be reached by calling 203-582-8628 or LearningCommons@qu.edu. Faculty are able to consult with an academic specialist to:

- follow up on early warnings
- consult on academic situations where next steps seem unclear
- discuss academic intervention strategies
- connect student with academic resources
- take action to retain a student

Office of Student Accessibility

Support for student wishing to disclose a disability. The Office of Student Accessibility (OSA) located at both Mt. Carmel and North Haven campuses welcomes students with disabilities. Please contact the Director of OSA at 203-582-8467 or the Associate Director at 203-582-7268 email access@qu.edu.

The Office of Student Accessibility:

- provides leadership to University efforts to ensure an accessible learning environment for individuals with disabilities
- ensures compliance with federal and state regulations
- serves as a central resource on disability-related information, procedures and services for the University community
- provides expertise in the development, implementation, and acquisition of standard disability-related University practices, procedures and resources.

Cultural and Global Engagement

The Department of Cultural and Global Engagement, which can be reached at 203-582-8425, promotes inclusion and diversity through engaged learning for students, faculty and staff at Quinnipiac University. The Department advances the university's mission by mentoring and advising students, facilitating transformative cultural experiences, preparing students to be responsible global citizens, and enhancing creative and critical thinking through:

- local and global academic engagement;
- education abroad;
- multicultural education and training;
- support for underrepresented students: LGBTQ+, Students of Color, First Generation College Students, DACA (Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals), and
- international student services

Religious Life

Religious Life provides students spiritual and pastoral counseling, worship, sacraments and celebratory activities. For more information about religious life at Quinnipiac, please call the executive director of university religious life at 203-582-8257 or email religious.life@quinnipiac.edu. To contact the University Rabbi call 203-582-8206.