

Spring 2023 Black and Latinx Leadership Summit for Students.

Presented by Walmart & Sam's Club

Here at Walmart and Sam's Club, we are committed to recruiting, supporting and developing exceptional diverse students who are looking to help us power the future of retail. This 3-day summit at our headquarters in Northwest Arkansas will be an interactive experience filled with professional development workshops, networking opportunities and social engagements with leaders, associates and campus recruiters who are invested in YOUR success. Invited students will also interview for a 2024 internship which means you may leave with an offer in your hand for next summer! Apply today to join us!

Summit Details

When? Friday, April 14th through Monday, April 17th

Where? Our Home Office in Bentonville, Arkansas

Who? Current undergraduate sophomores with graduation dates between Dec 2024 – June 2025

What's Covered? The summit is funded by Walmart/Sam's Club with flights, hotel, meals, transportation and activities provided by us

How To Apply? Scan the QR code to apply for one of the 6 available summit tracks: Technology, Supply Chain, Merchandising, Product, Audit or Finance & Accounting

Deadline: 5pm CT on Monday, March 27th (all students will be notified of their participation status no later than 3/31)

Apply Now!

Scan to learn more!

During the summit you will:

- Meet and hear from diverse leaders and associates, including various HBCU and HSI alumni
- Learn about the breadth of business areas and opportunities available at Walmart & Sam's Club
- Attend a wide range of professional development workshops and sessions
- Participate in formal and informal networking as well as social events and engagements
- Explore the Northwest Arkansas area and learn more about the community [includes a local business expo]
- Interview for a summer 2024 internship!