Very confident

You are confident inspiring others and hold yourself accountable. You can easily manage your time and lead projects.

Somewhat confident

Great start! Further develop your leadership skills by asking for feedback from others, practicing active listening and time management.

Not confident yet

Identify opportunities to improve your leadership skills. When working on a team in classes, consider taking an active role. Offer to help plan the project and check in with other members, or conduct research that other team members can use.

Develop your leadership skills

- Accept more responsibility in projects. Offer to take the lead, take notes or conduct research.
- Offer support to others. Demonstrate your leadership skills by communicating and checking in with those that you are working with.
- Practice collaborating with your classmates on group projects or study sessions.
