

2022 SEAS Graduate Student Professional Development Fund

The W. Scott Amey Career Services Center partnered with Leidos to help cover the financial cost of professional development opportunities for SEAS graduate students. With this funding, students were able to join industry organizations, attend conferences, and network with STEM professionals.

Fund Recipients

- A total of $1,431.12 was awarded to 11 students.
- 19 applicants in total: 8 Masters and 11 Ph.D. students
- The average award per student was $130.10.

Professional Development

"With the material I have now in my hands I am committed to getting myself certified before the end of the calendar year, thus continuing my development as an engineer in the project management discipline."
- Nicolas G

"The NICE conference allows me to improve my skill set and gain networking opportunities with other experienced academic educators and improves the shortage of female educators in the field."
- Carmela G.

4 Conference Registrations
16 Professional Organizations

