

Dress for Success

1. Business Formal

Business formal includes full suits with slacks, dresses, or skirts, collared shirts, blouses, ties, and close-toed shoes.

2. Business Casual

Business casual includes nice bottoms (slacks, khakis, and skirts) and tops (sweaters, cardigans, blouses, polos, & collared shirts). It does not include jeans.

3. Smart Casual

Smart Casual is neat, conventional, and more informal. It includes dark jeans, boots, casual button up shirts & blouses, and leggings with long blouses or dresses.

4. Casual

Casual includes jeans, comfortable shirts, blouses, and duck gear. Casual typically does not include sweats or workout gear in an office setting.

General Tips

- For interviews, dress one step above the general expectations for employees in the company.

What Not To Wear

- No revealing clothing
- No explicit images or text
- No drug or alcohol references
