What does Business School mean to you?

• Why business school now?
• Your business school experience can answer many questions, what questions are you looking to explore?
• What role can business school play in your personal, intellectual, and career exploration?
• What responsibility does Yale have in making your business school experience positive? How much of that responsibility is yours?
• What are the important outcomes of business school for you?
• Who are the strongest voices trying to influence your business school career outcome (eg: family, friends, society)? How do you feel about these voices, and what role do they deserve to play or not?

How might you complete the sentence, business school will have been worthwhile if...
