

Reflection Ridge Road Trip Challenge

Appreciating the Journey and Planning the Road Ahead

Every career journey is a road trip filled with starting points, milestones, helpful travelers, memorable stops, and exciting destinations. Reflect on the road you have traveled, celebrate your progress, and consider where you are headed next.

1 STARTING POINT

Where did your career journey begin?

What first sparked your interest? | What did you hope to achieve?

2 MILESTONE MARKERS

What important stops have shaped your journey?

What accomplishment are you proud of? | What challenge helped you grow?

3 TRAVEL COMPANIONS

Who has traveled alongside you?

Who encouraged or taught you? | Who are you thankful for today?

4 SCENIC VIEWPOINT

What are you most grateful for right now?

What opportunity made a difference? | What part of your work do you value?

5 NEXT DESTINATION

Where would you like your road to lead next?

What opportunity excites you? | What skill or goal will you pursue?

ROAD AHEAD COMMITMENT

When I look back on my career journey, I am most grateful for:

One action I will take to continue moving forward is:

Final reflection: What advice would you give someone just beginning the career journey? _____

Every detour, challenge, milestone, and success has helped shape your journey. Take pride in the road you have traveled and look forward to the destinations still ahead.
