

INTERNSHIPS: Position descriptions

THOUGH SIMILAR IN MANY WAYS to job descriptions, internship position descriptions have unique attributes that help establish a focus on intern learning and ensure that intern and employer have shared expectations.

STANDARD SECTIONS

SIMILAR TO JOB DESCRIPTIONS:

- > Sell your organization – Make candidates excited about what your organization does. Mention why your organization matters, what makes it special, and why readers should intern there.
- > Describe the role – Tell potential interns how they will be contributing to your organization – projects they'll work on, teams they'll be a part of, tasks they'll be handling, etc.
- > List requirements – What skills, characteristics, and interests would make a successful intern? Mention whether they're required or just desired.
- > Application instructions – What do applicants need to submit, how, and by when?
- > Compensation – How much will interns be paid?

SECTION ON EXPECTED LEARNING

DESCRIBE WHAT INTERNS WILL LEARN:

- > Though interns are eager to make a contribution to your organization, they're also curious as to what they'll gain from the experience.
- > Including a learning section helps interns know you are committed to their learning and success.

SAMPLE SECTION TITLES:

- > What you will learn
- > Interns will develop skills in
- > You will gain experience in
- > How you will benefit

DESIRED LEARNING PROMPT

ASK INTERNS TO REFLECT:

- > Ask interns to include a few ideas about what they'd like to learn in their cover letter.
- > This helps interns develop a habit of reflection and also helps ensure a good match.

LOGISTICAL EXPECTATIONS

BE CLEAR ABOUT:

- > Internship start and end date.
- > Expected hours per week.
- > Location of internship site.
