Student Testimonials:

"My experience in the program was mind-opening; my mentor stressed having a clear mission and figuring out what we care about and how we can formulate that passion into work."

"If you're unsure about how your degree is relevant to today's job market, what career path to pursue, or even how to get started, this program is a great place to start."

"This program really opened my eyes to the potentials I could reach within my desired career field and what I could start doing in undergrad. It goes without saying you truly get out what you put into this program."

"As a first-generation college student, this program gave me insight and demystified the 'white collar' world. Before, I felt like I didn't belong, but now that the curtain has been pulled back, I see how prepared and capable I am. This program has helped me to build so much confidence!"
