Careers in Community Health & Human Services

Do you want to provide education, policy development, or administration of programs that promote healthy communities? Perhaps you are interested in health and safety in the workplace, or maybe you want to focus on working with youth and families.

Examine Your Interests
Career paths in this community can lead to employment with government agencies, non-profit organizations, or for-profit organizations.

Key Skills
Background in social sciences, needs assessment, evaluation, programming, administration, policy or protocol development, problem solving, attention to detail, interpersonal communication, grant writing, and experience in community or workplace settings with diverse populations.

Notable Employers
AccessAbilities, Inc • AmeriCorps • Arconic • Boys and Girls Club • Centerstone Damar Services, Inc • Franciscan Health • Indiana State Department of Health Kansas Health Institute • Little Star ABA • Make a Wish Foundation Marion County Health Department • Tangram Incorporated

Common Majors:
• Community Health (BSPH)
• Human Development & Family Studies (BS)
• Youth Development (BS)
• Safety (BS, MS)
• Ergonomics (MS)
• Public Health Administration (MPH)
• Behavioral, Social, & Community Health (MPH)
Continuing Education
29% of School of Public Health undergraduate degree recipients go on to pursue a graduate program.

Popular areas of continued study include: Public Health, Medicine, Allied Health, Education, Law, Business, Social Work, Computer Science, and Public Policy

Report Your Graduation Success
What’s next?
Seniors-Let us know your plans after graduation. You will receive a survey about a month after graduation. Please fill out the survey and share your next step.

- Employment
- Graduate School
- Military Service
- Americorps/Peace Corps

We want to hear from all graduates!