IS THE MASTER OF SCIENCE IN SUSTAINABLE BUSINESS RIGHT FOR YOU?

You have work experience or sustainability-related experience.

You have an undergraduate degree in business, science, engineering, public policy or a related discipline.

You aspire to make a difference in the world of business.

THE MIAMI ADVANTAGE.

#3

We ranked third in the U.S. and 15th internationally in the 20th annual Better World MBA Ranking.

#5

Miami Herbert was ranked #5 in the U.S. and #17 worldwide for corporate social responsibility, in the Financial Times Global MBA Rankings 2021.

ESG

Our world-class faculty have expertise in all three pillars (environment, social and governance) of corporate sustainability.

WHAT'S IN IT FOR YOU?

Get your degree at a school whose core mission is sustainability. Our building is LEED Platinum certified. Industry sustainability officers participate in our Advisory Board (EY, Bacardi); CSO Summit & Symposium (AutoNation, Royal Caribbean); and as invited speakers (Apple, Estee Lauder).

Graduates are hired as sustainability consultants at consulting firms, as sustainability managers in corporations and governments, and as ESG analysts in finance.

Tackle a global issue alongside a diverse group of students. Join a cohort that is 45% international, having represented 10 different countries in the last 3 years, including Russia, UK, Italy and Latin America.

CHANGE YOUR CAREER WITH A GAME-CHANGING PROGRAM.

- Students are assigned to a company to participate in an 8-month consulting project to get real-world experience.
- Our academically rigorous, STEM-certified curriculum develops your analytical and quantitative skills to teach you how to increase firm value by being sustainable.
- Where others retrofit standard business courses into a science program, we put the focus on business, redesigning business courses like accounting and supply chain to focus on sustainability.
