About

If you are looking for a buddy to yell as loudly as possible at a University of Houston sporting event, look no further than the two of us. We can usually be found hanging out with our friends playing in the Spirit of Houston, or on a field or court of some kind.

As the most recognized members of the UH staff, we are never too busy to high-five a fan or put a smile on anyone's face.

We are fiercely loyal and are always prepared to fight, fight, fight for red and white. Our goals are to spread joy and take amazing selfies.

In our free time, we study campus maps to keep up with all of the development, practice doing a lot of push-ups, chase food delivery robots, and occasionally take cat naps.
