

Personal Advisory Board

Expand Your Reach

Academic Advisor

Academic Coach

Start with your Academic Advisor and Academic Coach, then add other trusted individuals to form a diverse group of opinions to help you thoughtfully consider your options

The remainder of your personal advisory board can come from wherever you think is best! The goal is to combine a diverse group of people with different backgrounds, experience, and expertise to help you see multiple perspectives and thoughtfully consider your options at key points during your undergraduate education and beyond.

Below are just some of the many categories of people and resources available at Quinnipiac you may want to add to your personal advisory board. Be sure to discuss with your academic advisor to make sure you're utilizing all the resources that will help you navigate your time at Quinnipiac.

CAS Career Development – assists students as they prepare for both co-curricular and post-graduation career success

Athletic Advisor – assists varsity athletes in coordinating their athletic requirements with curricular and other commitments

Alumni Mentors – Quinnipiac graduates available to offer guidance in life both during and after Quinnipiac through Bobcat Connect

Residence Hall Director/Resident Assistant – for any issue related to students' on-campus housing experience

Family Members – parents, aunts, uncles, older siblings, cousins. Your family often know you the best and likely have their own personal and professional networks to which they can connect you

Fellow Bobcats – Your friends here at QU (or friends from home) may also be another source of support and guidance
