What's New for the Class of 2022 Application?

- Changes to the Online Assessment
- PMF Applicant Handbook
 - This handbook details the annual application process, explains eligibility requirements, required documentation, and provides an overview of the assessment process. In addition, effective for 2022 and forward, the previous separate PMF Assessment Preparation Guide has been integrated into the Handbook to prepare prospective applicants for the online assessment, including sample questions, and how to request a reasonable accommodation. This Handbook, along with other resources, are available under the Become a PMF\Resources section for applicants.
- Applicants are able to access their submitted application to upload new or updated documents up until the application closes. Those applicants who are claiming veterans' preference will have up to two weeks after the application closes to submit supporting documentation for their claim.
