

Mercy College is the dynamic, diverse New York City area college whose students are on a personal mission: to get the most out of life by getting the most out of their education.

Founded in 1950, Mercy offers more than 90 undergraduate and graduate degree and certificate programs within five schools: Business, Education, Health and Natural Sciences, Liberal Arts and Social and Behavioral Sciences. Mercy College challenges its faculty and staff to make higher education work for anyone hungry enough to earn a better place in life. With campuses in Dobbs Ferry, Bronx, Manhattan and Yorktown Heights, the vibrancy of the College culture is sustained by a diverse student body from around the region.

Mercy College is recognized by the White House as a “Bright Spot in Hispanic Education,” by the U.S. Department of Education as a Hispanic Serving Institution, is designated by the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs as “Yellow Ribbon School” and consistently recognized as one of the top schools for veterans and their families. Here are other distinctions and awards our academic programs and college experiences have been recognized for:

Recognized as a College of Distinction.

Featured as a Smart Choice by Peterson's Guide to Honors Programs and Colleges.

Named one of the most exciting colleges in the U.S. by Cool Colleges.

The PACT program is recognized as a Best Practice by the National Association for Colleges and Employers.

Mercy College's Occupational Therapy program ranked in the Top 100 Best Grad Schools.