Choosing What to Wear

Attire for career fairs, interviews, and other professional events can range from a professional business suit to business casual separates depending on the field. Select an outfit that fits well, looks polished, and is appropriate for the environment and professional area. When in doubt, err on the side of dressing more professionally, choosing dark or neutral colors.

Sample Attire