Career is everywhere at MIT Sloan. We’re bringing it together in one place.

The CDO just launched Your CDO, a collaborative hub for MIT Sloan’s career activities and expertise, on campus and around the world.

Your CDO brings career-related content into one platform and segments by Program, Career and Affinity Communities, connecting you with career advice, events, clubs, resources, and job postings, customized by your program and career interests.

Explore Career Communities and Affinity Communities
