Tactical Coordination Intern

UConnPIRG

---

Description of Internship Provider

The University of Connecticut Public Interest Research Group (UConnPIRG) is a nonprofit student activism and advocacy group dedicated to working in the public interest and bringing about social change. UConn PIRG works to teach students the organizing and activism skills they need to make a difference in the community. UConnPIRG works with a variety of issues that are current in the lives of students.

---

Description of Internship Position

As an intern in the tactical coordination program, students will work with a specific issue under UConnPIRG. Each intern will focus on recruiting, training, and tracking a team of volunteers to hit campaign goals on the specific issue. Within the coordinators, specific students can apply for executive leadership opportunities in order to gain more responsibilities and leadership opportunities.

---

Application - Period, Process, & Materials:

- Students can apply on a rolling basis but preference will go to students before the first two of each semester.
- Students can apply online at http://career.uconn.edu/internships-and-coops/earn-credit-for-your-internship/.
- Application

Eligible Class Standings & Minimum GPA:

- Freshman, Sophomore, Junior, Senior, Graduate Student
- 2.00/4.00

Credit, Compensation, & Hours:

- Unpaid
- 10 hours per week
- UConnPIRG is open to working with academic departments to arrange credit for this internship. Please see guidelines for earning academic credit for your internship at https://career.uconn.edu.

---

For More Information, Please Contact:

Arielle Mizrahi
Campus Organizer, UConnPIRG
Student Union 214
amizrahi@connpirgstudents.org
(732)735-2234

http://connpirgstudents.org/storrs