While this department does not offer academic credit for internships, Individualized majors have had successful internships. Sample internship opportunities and other credit options can be found below.

To pursue credit options:

Academic departments that allow non-majors to receive credit for internships through their department are listed with an asterisk (*) on the “internship course listing by major” page on www.interncoop.uconn.edu. Contact the Center for Career Development for our alternative options - a one-credit internship course and zero-credit internship transcript notation.

Ways to find an internship:

Internships can be found on HuskyCareerLink via www.huskycareerlink.uconn.edu, or through online resources found at www.interncoop.uconn.edu.

Sample Internship opportunities for Individualized majors:

There are numerous, diverse internship opportunities for Individualized majors. The internship opportunity will depend on the student’s academic and career interests.

Sample organizations where Individualized majors have interned:

Students create individualized majors in a wide variety of thematic areas and therefore the types of organizations where they have interned vary greatly. They have included: Village Health Works (NYC), Amnesty International, Global Policy Forum, 350.org,
