Application Details – Period, Process & Required Materials:
Application opens during spring semester. Interviews held during end of spring semester. Limited openings available fall into spring semester.; Email resume to Stephen.Hanjack@uconn.edu; Résumé, Brief description of relevant work in body of email

Eligible Class Standings & Minimum GPA:
Freshman, Sophomore, Junior, Senior, Graduate Student; 2.00/4.00

Credit, Compensation & Hours:
No credit required; Paid, $10.10/hr; Varies depending on athletic schedule. Usually 3-4 events per month

Description of Internship Site:
The Department of Athletics focuses on developing the best athletes both in their athletic ability and in their sportsmanship. The UConn athletes are known for their high spirit and ability to work hard and gain UConn many national championships.

Internship Site Website:
http://www.uconnhuskies.com/

Description of Internship Position:
The objective of the UConn Athletics Game Day Assistant program is to help students gain valuable experience in the field of sports marketing before graduation. You will have the opportunity to build your resume and supplement your classroom knowledge by working with UConn’s Div. 1 athletics program - a national brand. While part of the program you will improve teamwork, problem solving, time management, and professionalism among many other traits. This also allows you the chance to stand out among your peers and be chosen to work side-by-side with athletic department staff in the office on various tasks and projects. This will lead to increased responsibility and possibly oversight of one of our sports.

Additional Important Details:
Need to be willing to work nights/weekends. Must be able to work Football/Basketball games.

For More Information, Contact:
Stephen Hanjack, Director of Marketing and Promotions, Department of Athletics, Field House, Office 224, (860)486-6946 or stephen.hanjack@uconn.edu