81% of graduates who responded earned their Master's degree. This data is sourced from a survey distributed 1 month prior to 2020 graduation and up through 6 months after.

64% employed full time

To what extent is what you plan to be doing post-graduation related to the graduate degree you pursued at UConn?

1% not at all related

7% slightly related

9% moderately related

27% very related

56% directly related

In-state graduates are over 4 times more likely to work in-state after graduating from UConn than out-of-state graduates.

60% of graduates who are employed full time are currently working in the state of Connecticut.

Average salary for graduates employed part-time is $20,000-$29,999.

69% of post-graduation plans were impacted by COVID-19.

31% of graduates did not have their post-graduation plans impacted by COVID-19.

Comparison to previous years:

2020:

42% of advanced degree graduates received career support from the career center.

2019:

55% of graduates stayed in CT for employment.

2018:

46% of graduates stayed in CT for employment.

Types of Career Support Received:

38% of career support was resume and CV critiques.

11 percentage point increase from 2018 graduates.

5 percentage point increase from 2019 graduates.

FAVORABLE OUTCOMES INCLUDE:

- Employed Full-Time
- Employed Part-Time
- enrolled in a program of continuing education

OF THOSE IMPACTED BY COVID-19, 36% still found employment.

42% of advanced degree graduates received career support from the career center.

11 percentage point increase from 2019.

5 percentage point increase from 2018.

EMPLOYED

FULL-TIME

PART-TIME

ENSURED IN A PROGRAM OF CONTINUING EDUCATION

Favorable outcomes

Unable to find a job, considering additional schooling
Unable to find a job, open to accepting job outside of field
Accepted part-time job unrelated to career goals
Accepted part-time job related to career goals
Job offer rescinded
Will be starting work remotely
Other
Not impacted