WHAT WE DO

Penn Career Services serves all students and alumni of the university. We help students define their career goals and take the necessary steps to achieve those goals. It is important to remember that you do not need to have a concrete career plan in place prior to meeting with one of our advisors. We are here to help you explore all of your career options and interests, and to set up a plan to make those goals a reality.

SERVICES TO CONSIDER

Career Fairs

Each semester Career Services hosts multiple Career Fairs that you can attend to meet recruiters from various companies and organizations! There are industry specific fairs and other more general fairs. Check Handshake to see all of our Career Fair offerings.

Resume Reviews

Whether you are applying to work-study positions, internships, or jobs, you can submit your documents for review and receive feedback from an advisor.

Generation First

Each Semester Career Services hosts multiple Career Fairs that you can attend and meet recruiters from various companies and organizations! There are industry specific fairs and other more generic fairs. Be sure to check Handshake to see if the fairs fit your interests!

GLOSSARY OF TERMS

Career Assessment: Tests or decision-making tools used to identify skills, abilities, and interests in order to inform education or career decisions.

Career Exploration: Learning about various career paths and how they fit with your unique skills and interests.

Career Field: A grouping of occupations and industries based on commonalities.

Career Plan Survey: Graduating seniors fill out a career plan survey from Career Services to tell us what they are doing after graduation (whether that is working, going to graduate school, or volunteering). Career Services creates a report with the data collected from the survey so that current students can get a better understanding of their peers' career paths.

Industry: A specific type of business, or branch of a particular field, that employs personnel and uses and generates capital. Often named after its principal product or service.

Networking: The exchange of information or resources to cultivate productive relationships for exploration or professional development.

Professional Network: Group of individuals with whom you have formed relationships and can serve as support in looking for professional opportunities.

HIGHLIGHTED RESOURCES

Career Planning Tools

Handshake

Handshake is Career Services' recruiting platform for University of Pennsylvania students, postdocs and alumni. Handshake uses cutting-edge technology to help students more easily connect with employers and source jobs, internships, event information, and On-Campus Recruiting opportunities. Students and alumni can schedule appointments with a career advisor through Handshake.

Quaker Career Closet | Career Wardrobe

Quaker Career Closet is held once per year at the beginning of the semester. It is open to all Penn Students to "shop" for professional attire.

Career Wardrobe is a partnership with a second-hand boutique in Philadelphia. FGLI students can shop here (sponsored by VPUL and Career Services) for one free professional outfit by signing up through Handshake.

Vault

Vault offers industry and interviewing guides written by people who work in those industries for non-technical audiences. Career Services has a subscription to this service so that Penn students can access these for free.
