On-Campus and Virtual Employer Events

Employers can connect with a wide variety of Penn students by hosting an employer event. Information Sessions allow you to engage with a larger group of students, provide details about your company and available positions, and present career development opportunities. Coffee Chats allow for a more casual opportunity to engage with students, and can be organized as one-on-ones or small group settings. For assistance with planning your unique recruiting at Penn, please submit an Employer Strategy Meeting Request.

Jackie Moriniere joins us this Spring as the Senior Associate Director for Employer Relations, having previously been the Associate Director for the School of Engineering and Applied Science. She is passionate about creating equitable access to career resources and opportunities. Jackie is the former Co-chair of the First-Gen Committee and serves as the Co-chair of JEDI (Justice, Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion) initiatives.

Heather Knox is the Employer Relations Coordinator for the Penn Career Services office. She has worked in higher education since 2016, serving as both staff and faculty at colleges in Pennsylvania and New York. Heather joined the Penn team in December, and she manages the interview suite and Employer Relations student worker staff. She also coordinated the Spring Employer Treks for First-Generation and Low-Income students this past March.
