Penn Career Services Celebrates 100 Years

Next fall, the University of Pennsylvania's Career Services office will celebrate a century of guiding students and alumni toward meaningful careers. Since its founding in the 1926 as a small placement bureau, the office has evolved into a comprehensive hub for career education, employer engagement, and lifelong professional development. To mark this 100-year milestone, Career Services will host a series of centennial events and campaigns that celebrate our history and the enduring connections between Penn and our employer community. We invite our valued employer partners to join us in celebrating this legacy and shaping the next century of career connections at Penn. If your organization is interested in partnering on centennial programs or events, please contact Heather Knox at hknox@upenn.edu.

Welcome to Recruiting at Penn

We hope your campus recruitment season is progressing smoothly or, for those who have wrapped up, that it was a successful one! As we look toward spring 2026 recruiting, we encourage you to submit your OCR requests as early as possible to secure on-campus space for interviews, coffee chats, and information sessions. While it's not as crucial to submit your requests for off-campus or virtual recruiting events, we still encourage you to submit as early as you can so we can deconflict your sessions.

Thank you for partnering with us, and we look forward to supporting your recruitment needs in the upcoming semester!
