

UNL CAREER SERVICES

Key Considerations to Understand Career Goals

Identifying your values is an important step in building understanding and inspiration for your career. This process can also give you direction in your job search.

Use these guiding questions to identify what about your future career or career path are important to you. Your answers will reveal important considerations for your job search and what keywords to use when you begin.

Roles

- What types of positions or roles are you interested in?
  - What responsibilities or level of responsibility would you like to have?
  - What types of duties or activities would you be happiest doing?
-

Interests

- What industries interest you, and which are you certain do not?
  - What specific companies are you excited about?
  - What organizations would you like to work with or for?
-

Values

- What type of workplace culture would be best for you?
  - How important is compensation to you?
  - Where would you like to live?
  - What would make you fulfilled in your job?
-

Keywords

Using the information from the columns to the left, list any words that stand out to you.

Feel like something is missing that is not a role, interest, or value? Add that too to ensure you get the most out of your job search!

---